The gender diversity in the organization management is addressed.

- There exist guidelines and policies of the organization that take into account the diversity of all stakeholders.
- Suitable budget plan is created based on the intermediate and/or long term strategy.
- Financial statement is approved by the decision-making body.
- The project implementation is monitored.
- There is a written accounting regulation or equivalent document, describing detailed accounting process including document management.
- Project plan states the purpose of the project, goals, approaches to achieve the goals, necessary resources and its time frame.
- The contents of project plan are shared with stakeholders.
- The contents of the evaluation and project report are shared with stakeholders.
- Project implementation is monitored.
- Decision-making rules are clearly stated in the division of roles, responsibilities of board members and the statutory auditors, etc. is clearly stated in the Constitution, etc. is clearly stated on informative material made public.
- Recommendations that the anti-corruption and anti-bribery measures are clearly stated.
- The contents of project plan are shared with stakeholders.
- The official and latest information is available on website, SNS, brochures and other documents which can be accessed by the general public.
- The official and latest information is made public.
- The official and latest information is regularly made public.
- The official and latest information is made public. If ICT softwares are used in workplace for organizational management, the decision-making procedures for usage of ICT softwares are stipulated in the Constitution, etc.
- The statutory auditors audit both the accounting statements and management documents.
- The contents of project plan are shared with stakeholders.
- The official and latest information is made public. If ICT softwares are used in workplace for organizational management, the decision-making procedures for usage of ICT softwares are stipulated in the Constitution, etc.
- The official and latest information is made public.